10:30 AM –ON ZOOM ONLY –7th Sunday after Epiphany, as they said in old movies, “Meanwhile back at the ranch...” we go back to the stories in Genesis to check in on Joseph and his brothers. The backstory is that Joseph got on the bad side of the family by sharing his dreams that they would all bow down to him, they sold him into slavery to get him out of there, and after some more struggles, dreams helped him rise to Pharaoh’s right-hand man. Many years later, the brothers come in a time of drought and scarcity begging Joseph, whom they don’t recognize, for food. He is now in power to exact justice, revenge, or anything his heart desires, but love rules the day and forgiveness abounds. You can join us on Zoom.

First Congregational United Church of Christ is an open, inclusive church that exists to worship God and practice the gospel of Jesus Christ. We welcome all people of goodwill who seek to share the love of God and honor the diversity of creation in a spirit of tolerance and flexibility.
