

Dear Friends,

I pray during this last week before our election for discerning minds to separate fact from propaganda, vision over fear, and common good over capitalism.

I pray for hearts that put your kingdom before partisan politics.

I pray for compassion over anxiety, generosity over scarcity, and unity over divisiveness.

I pray that, whatever the outcome, we can come together and work to solve our problems, as citizens of this country and siblings of this world.

I pray for peace in our homes, our communities, our country, and our world.

Amen.

Peace,
Pastor Enno
