only one time in all the gospels does Jesus lose an

ZOOM August 27, 13th Sunday after Pentecost, often when talking about civil disobedience, we look the Henry David Thoreau, or Mahatma Ghandi as those who began the non-violent resistance movement. The story in Exodus tells the story of midwives who disobeyed a Pharaoh’s order for the purpose of thwarting a genocide. One of those who were saved was a baby named Moses.
