10:30 AM -Worship Service - Inside AND ON ZOOM 6th Sunday of Easter, in early days of Christianity, Paul was part of a small sect of Judaism that was a very small part of all the religions in the world. The Roman Empire was based upon polytheism, you could worship your gods as long as we can set up the Roman gods in your communities as well. Paul, when in Athens, uses this to his advantage to lift up the unknown god, who is the Creator God. In our day and age, we have many versions of who God is and how God operates in our country and around the world. What do we really know about God?

10:30 AM Worship Service - Inside AND ON ZOOM 7th Sunday of Easter, to get ready for the day of Pentecost, we hear about the ascension of Christ into the heavens and then the angels who tell them to stop staring at the sky and get busy. So they focused on prayer until the Spirit blew through them. We are very good in this church with meetings, social justice action, and fellowship; but are we being fed with prayer enough to do all of this with the Spirit and with love? We will be doing anointing during this service as well.
